Adventuring Member:

Prerequisite: None

Annual Cost: 20 TUs

Benefits:

- 5% discount to the cost of divine spells of the Conjunction (Healing) type up to 3rd level (spell cast on member PC only).

The Adventuring Member (AM) is the most common type of member in the city. It is the entry-level position in the Quorum of Faith. The Quorum recognizes the fact that while the AM is always on a mission; he or she also wishes to help as much as possible. By simply donating their time, the Quorum will discount specific healing spells. Anyone may take advantage of this rank of membership, as it is open to all character levels and classes.

Initiate Member:

Prerequisite:

- PC must be at least 3rd level.
- PC must be able to cast 1st-level divine spells.
- PC must be enrolled as an Adventuring Member of their faith for a period of 20 TU prior to advancement to this rank. The player cannot simply "spend" these TU by marking them off the log sheet. The PC must have actively participated in adventures whose TU add up to this requirement, while maintaining his/her status as an Adventuring Member.

Annual Cost: 30 TUs and 25 gp in annual dues

Benefits:

- 15% discount to the cost of divine spells of the Conjunction (Healing) type up to 3rd level (spell cast on member PC only).
- 10% discount to the cost of other divine spells up to 3rd level (spell cast on member PC only).
- 5% discount to cost on all divine spells of the Conjunction (Healing) type up to 3rd level cast upon fellow party members.

The Initiate Member (IM) is the first step to advancement in the Quorum of Faith. Whereas the Adventuring Member is open to all classes, the IM is open only to those PCs who currently have levels in a character class that has (or will have) divine spell capabilities. The IM may use his influence to allow his fellow party members (who are not QoF members) have a 10% discount as if they were Adventuring Members.

Devoted member:

Prerequisite:

- PC must be at least 7th level.
- PC must possess at least three (3) levels of a divine spellcasting class (cleric, druid, paladin, ranger or approved variant/prestige class).
- PC must be enrolled as an Initiate Member of their faith for a period of 30 TU prior to advancement to this rank. The player cannot simply "spend" these TU by marking them off the log sheet. The PC must have actively participated in adventures whose TU add up to this requirement, while maintaining his/her status as an Initiate Member.

- 15% discount to the cost of other divine spells up to 3rd level (spell cast on member PC only).
- 10% discount to the cost of divine spells of the Conjunction (Healing) type of 4th or 5th level (spell cast on member PC only).
- 5% discount to cost on all divine spells of the Conjunction (Healing) type up to 4th level cast upon fellow party members.
- +2 competence bonus to Knowledge (Religion) checks [only applicable if you have ranks in Knowledge (Religion)]

The Devoted Member (DM) is a little more involved with the Quorum than the Initiate. Whereas the IM was learning the ropes, the DM has established himself as a committed, contributing member to the Quorum and the city. This is the highest rank a PC may attain if his faith isn't an official member of the Quorum. (Options for consideration in establishing a new shrine to the Quorum are notated in a later section.)

The PC must have actively participated in adventures whose TU add up to this requirement, while maintaining his/her status as a Devoted Member.
- The PC must have an invitation to join or possess three suitable certified recommendations or favors from the high-ranking Quorum of Faith members.
